However, entering into this transaction is also subject to conditions relating to the approval process that must be taken into consideration. As this Investment Transaction qualifies as a large connected transaction under the relevant Notifications of the Capital Market Supervisory Board, the Company is therefore required to obtain an approving resolution from the shareholders' meeting with a vote of not less than three-fourths of the total votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and entitled to vote, excluding the portion of the interested shareholders. In this regard, in the event that the independent financial advisor or the Audit Committee is of the opinion that the Company should not enter into the transaction, shareholders holding shares and entitled to vote must not object to entering into the transaction by ~~more than~~ 10 percent or more of the total votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and entitled to vote in order for the Company to be able to enter into the transaction.
